

Naming Sherman, Big Convention Ends With Whoop

(Continued From First Page.)

doubt as the ballots of States were heaped one upon another until they reached 816. C. Airman Lodge announced the result as follows:

"Vice-President Fairbanks gets 1 vote, Governor Nelson of Nebraska, 10 votes, Governor Guild of Massachusetts, 75 votes, Governor Murphy of New Jersey, 77 votes, and James Schoolcraft Sherman of New York, 816 votes."

The vote in detail was as follows:

States.	Sherman.	Murphy.	Guild.	Fairbanks.
Alabama	19
Arkansas	19
California	20
Colorado	9	1
Connecticut	14
Delaware	10
Florida	10
Georgia	26
Idaho	6
Illinois	26
Indiana	26
Iowa	15
Kansas	19
Kentucky	26
Louisiana	15
Maine	9
Maryland	16
Massachusetts	75
Michigan	26
Minnesota	22
Mississippi	15
Missouri	26
Montana	26
Nebraska	10
Nevada	6
New Hampshire	8
New Jersey	77
New York	816
North Carolina	24
North Dakota	8
Ohio	19
Oklahoma	14
Oregon	8
Pennsylvania	26
Rhode Island	17
South Carolina	17
South Dakota	8
Tennessee	24
Texas	26
Utah	6
Vermont	8
Virginia	24
Washington	19
West Virginia	13
Wisconsin	4	2	3	10
Wyoming	8
Alaska
Arizona
District of Columbia
Hawaii
New Mexico
Philippine Islands
Porto Rico
Total	816	77	10	1

Off for Home.

Again the floodgates of enthusiasm were let loose as floor and galleries joined in a pandemonium of demonstration for the nominee. The names connected with the convention were now quickly repeated. Committees from the various States were named to wait upon the candidates for President and Vice-President and formally notify them of the action of the convention in nominating them.

Prospective meetings of the national committee to perfect plans for the coming campaign were arranged, and thanks and congratulations were extended to the Chicagoans, who have given a convention hall of such perfect equipment.

And then, just before noon, amid cheers still echoing, and the inspiring strains of the national anthem, the convention finally adjourned.

The action of the convention touched a sympathetic chord throughout the city, and to-night the party spirit of Republican enthusiasm runs high. The nominees for Vice-President is among those who are witnessing these scenes of enthusiastic tribute. He remained at his hotel during the balloting to-day, and quickly received a message announcing his nomination. Later the delegates, arrived from the convention, flocked about him in a continuous ovation, lasting throughout the afternoon.

Many of the delegates, and the great mass of strangers in the hall, were seen homeward to-night on crowded trains, and to-morrow there will be only the aftermath, with perhaps a few of the leaders, to mark the historic gathering.

Searching for Leader.

Attention is now being turned in the direction of the chairman of the national committee, the general-in-chief, who will have supreme command of the Republican forces in the approaching campaign.

The national committee after a session to-day named a subcommittee of eight members, who are to-night for Cincinnati, where it will confer with Secretary Taft to-morrow on the selection of the campaign manager and the details of the campaign. The name of Frank H. Hitchcock, who has been prominently identified with Mr. Taft's interests up to this time, and of Arthur I. Vorys, of Ohio, who credited with turning the tide in Ohio, sentiment at a time when it was not getting so strongly toward Taft, are frequently mentioned. A considerable number of the members of the national committee have united in a signed declaration in behalf of Hitchcock. The name of ex-Governor Myron T. Herrick, of Ohio, is also mentioned among the members of the subcommittee, but the actual selection will depend upon the exchange of views between the secretaries and the members of the subcommittee when they assemble at Cincinnati to-morrow.

CONFERENCE WITH SHERMAN

Taft Off for Cincinnati—Many Messages of Congratulations.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—Secretary Taft left here at 4:05 o'clock this afternoon for Cincinnati, where he will confer with Representative Sherman, of New York, his running mate on the Republican ticket. He traveled over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and will reach Cincinnati to-morrow morning.

La Follette Greeting.

Usually an early riser, the Secretary was a little late in taking up the business of the day. He was up at 6 o'clock this morning before he came down to breakfast. The principal power rooms of the K Street residence were filled with the magnificent bunches of cutflowers, and telegrams of congratulation were piled high upon a sideboard. One that came overnight was of peculiar interest to the Secretary. It was as follows:

Madison, Wis., June 15th.

"Hon. William H. Taft, Washington, D. C."

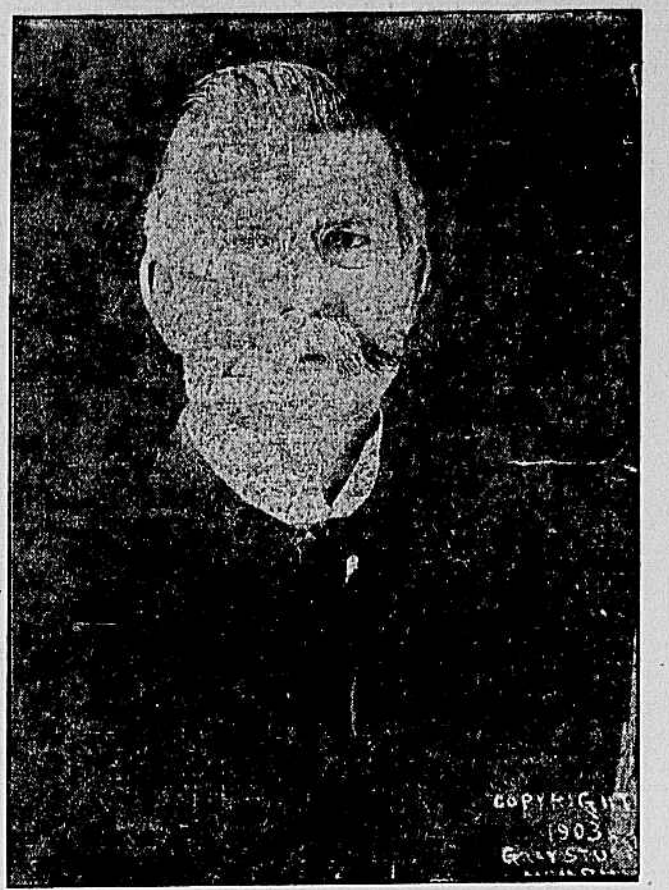

"While the platform is disappointing in some fundamental provisions and omissions, and I shall claim the right to say so, I congratulate you most sincerely and in the faith that you are more nearly in accord with the great body of Republican voters than the platform. I shall do all in my power to insure your election."

(Signed)

"ROBERT M. LA FOLLETTE"

The fatigue and excitement of last night, apparently made little impression upon Mr. Taft and other members

New Secretary of War

GENERAL LUKE E. WRIGHT.

Who on July 1st will become head of the War Department, succeeding Secretary Taft.

of the secretary's family, and even before the usual breakfast hour all were downstairs and deeply engrossed in the morning newspapers, every one of which displayed on the first page, a more or less pleasing likeness of the War Secretary and candidate.

More Important News.

A sign of the change that has taken place in the official status of Secretary Taft was the appearance at an early hour of a blue coated policeman who took station at the curb directly in front of the Taft residence, where he or one of his mates will remain constantly on duty, day and night, whenever the candidate is in Washington.

When the secretary descended from his bedroom this morning and entered the drawing-room he found his first caller in the person of Lieutenant Henry C. Corbin, a warm personal friend, an Ohio man and fellow statesman. He extended his congratulations, and they were gratefully received.

A telegram received over night from a member of his family in the West determined Secretary Taft to leave Washington this afternoon for Cincinnati. He will leave that city in time to reach New Haven on Monday to participate in the reunion of his class of 1878. He reached the White House at 10 o'clock this morning, and at once went into the executive office and conferred with President Roosevelt.

After remaining with the President half an hour, Secretary Taft returned to his office at the War Department, but went back to the White House in time for the Cabinet meeting at 11 o'clock. He was kept on the move from the time he returned to the War Department after the Cabinet meeting at half-past 1 o'clock until the hour of his departure. Many departmental matters occupied his attention. Later he spent some of his time with his family.

At Cincinnati Secretary Taft will go to the home of his brother, Charles P. Taft, where he will make his headquarters while there. The Secretary has no home of his own in Cincinnati, having disposed of it some time ago.

Forker and Taft.

The following correspondence, dated to-day, between the Secretary and Senator Forker, following the nomination of the former at Chicago, was made public at the War Department to-day.

"Dear Mr. Secretary: Although I fear it may be unwelcome and probably misunderstood, it is, nevertheless, my pleasure to avail myself of the privilege to send you heartiest congratulations and best wishes for success in November."

"Very truly,"

"J. B. FORAKER"

Secretary Taft's response follows:

"My Dear Senator, I am so glad that your kindly message of congratulation gave me the greatest pleasure, and I thank you for it from the bottom of my heart. I have never ceased to remember that I owe to you my first substantial start in public life, and that it came without solicitation."

"With very best wishes, believe me, dear Senator,"

Sincerely yours,

"WILLIAM H. TAFT"

Replies to Messages.

Secretary Taft to-day dictated telegraphic replies to various dispatches of congratulations sent to him, in addition to his formal written reply to Senator Forker. The replies included the following:

To Vice-President Fairbanks, Indianapolis:

"I thank you cordially for your gracious and kindly message of congratulation."

To Senator Knox, at Pittsburg:

"Thank you sincerely for your hearty congratulations."

EMBARRASSING SITUATION

Question of Committee Chairmanship.

President Taft's Problem to Taft.

CHICAGO, June 19.—Eight members of the Republican National Committee left Chicago to-night for Cincinnati to confer with Secretary Taft concerning the election of a national chairman to manage the Republican campaign.

The subcommittee was appointed at the suggestion of Secretary Taft, who is said to be somewhat embarrassed by appeals from his friends in Ohio for the appointment of Arthur I. Vorys, of Myron T. Herrick, of that State, and by the demand made in a petition by the national committee for the appointment of Frank H. Hitchcock. The latter since his success in the Taft campaign for delegates is being strongly pushed by his friends, while those who are personally attached to Mr. Vorys are endeavoring to have him appointed to make every possible effort in his behalf.

Committee Named.

Congressman James S. Sherman, of New York, who was to-day nominated for Vice-President, accompanied the subcommittee to Cincinnati. The men

HON. GOTO ON THE BLUES' RESIGNATION

To editor Times-Dispatch which are very good explanation has been sent and Taft at large.

Southern Sir: Last week from tomorrow ask. Now say, "Hash, I know where expensive job can be located," at which time I propose to resign. I am not immediately, to who they fight at for now, I ask to no, he says, "Income Tax Abolition, of Infernal Temperament," I rotate with him in river stream of watery substance at battle of Port Arthur, many ideas burst at this from Nogi, he interlarded, "That not rushing general, but caused by few not-combined officers and rear rank, which has to be, for not being made headere because they vote uncomfortable position of lieutenant to captain which they can't occupy as to vote, I dimish at this and see king of Blooze, which is fat man standing by throne all week fixing blank files for penance, he say by reply to me, "You are first class for your words but do not mention anything about his just mountings and valleys of Virginia." You indicate by them words that I, Hashimura Goto, are chief lieutenant reporter for Blooze, therefore, I ask to no why you type them words about Blooze on the bum, because a few not-combined officers and rear rankers "resign" to show how harmonious they feel for the good of the country; and print them news about Chump giving Gates a jar for a Bigger Garrett for Leonard to occupy with his gun earpiece, dent you know them words were not for you to right, do you know Hon. City Council keep Blooze in order by premier's army, soldier-house for last on Thursday & 17 year, and don't you no a few tired feelings are only kind soldiers or Virginia that so on vacation not for badword worse for the service, if six soldier conspire to become a conspiracy, do them added together make a faction, I collapse at this that you are too young for reply.

I treat that your report that them six enjoying Hon. Resignation is enjoying Hon. Excitement which will not last for few weeks, thank you, as Hon. Resignation is not to be for them six and next time you here Hon. Report, you write it Hon. Discharge, more or less.

Hoping Hon. Taft is not enjoying too much fatness so that no room is left for Misses Hughes, Forker, Corbin & Co. in Republic party cause Taft got capital IT and wishing you pleasant ads, and your reporter hashimura GOTO.

Yours truly,

HASHIMURA GOTO.

Named for Vice-President

JAMES S. SHERMAN, OF NEW YORK.

who will confer with Secretary Taft on the chairmanship question are Powell Clayton, Arkansas; Myron T. Herrick, Ohio; Frank B. Kellogg, Minnesota; Charles Nagle, Missouri; E. E. Hart, Iowa; Senator W. E. Borah, Idaho; E. C. Duncan, North Carolina, and Frank O. Lowden, Illinois.

The subcommittee was selected when the new national committee met for organization immediately after the adjournment of the convention. Friends of Hitchcock insist that more than half of the eight members will vote to elect him chairman; the advocates of Vorys say that five members favor the election of the latter, or some member other than Mr. Hitchcock. It is conceded, however, that the chairmanship depends absolutely upon the wishes of Mr. Taft, who has not publicly expressed any preference.

Hitchcock and Vorys.

Keen interest in the selection of a political manager for Secretary Taft is taken by Charles P. Taft, of Ohio, and Henry W. Taft, of New York, brothers of the Republican nominee. In view of the fact that Mr. Hitchcock and Mr. Vorys both have strong following, an effort was made to-day by Charles P. Taft to have both withdrawn from the race. The suggestion that this course be taken when made to Mr. Hitchcock caused him to state that he had at no time been a candidate for the chairmanship, and that he would not embarrass the Secretary by asking for the place.

Mr. Vorys would make no statement whatever, leaving his interests entirely with his friends. Mr. Hitchcock in his reply to Charles P. Taft said that while he would not ask for the chairmanship, he would not accept a subordinate position.

Meeting of Committee.

The full committee, at its meeting to-day, elected Powell Clayton, of Arkansas, temporary chairman, to serve until a permanent chairman shall have been selected.

Elmer Dore was re-elected secretary, and W. E. Stone sergeant-at-arms. A committee was named to consider the appointment of subcommittees to go to Cincinnati to confer with Secretary Taft regarding the selection of a permanent chairman to manage his campaign.

Over 200 persons, mostly delegates, crowded the assembly room, causing the small groups and discussing the result of the convention and the probable action of the meeting of the national committee.

After about twenty members had entered the room, Charles P. Taft, brother of the Secretary, appeared and sent out the secretary's report. He then wished to see Governor Herrick. The Governor immediately came out, and Mr. Taft conferred with him for a short time. In a few minutes Henry W. Taft entered. The men had been together but a short time when Charles P. Taft left the building and boarded a car for up-town.

TEN TERMS IN CONGRESS.

Nominee for Vice-President Quite an Active Member.

NEW YORK, June 19.—James Schoolcraft Sherman, member of Congress, and by profession a lawyer, was born October 24, 1855, at Saratoga, N. Y. His parents were Richard U. and Mary Frances Sherman. He is now in his fifty-third year.

A graduate of Hamilton College, near his home, in 1878 he received the degree of a law from that institution only five years ago. He was admitted to the bar two years after graduating, practiced in his native city, and was elected Mayor of Utica in 1884.

The Republican State Convention chose Sherman for its chairman in 1886, and again in 1900. He was elected to Congress in 1887, and except for an interval of two years—1891 to 1893—has been continuously re-elected since that time. His present term as representative would expire next year. He was recently president of the Utica Trust and Deposit Company.

His official account of himself in the Congressional Directory gives a further business association as president of the New Hartford Canning Company.

In the course of his ten congressional terms he has been, perhaps, the most active of the New York delegation at Washington in the work of the committees.

ENGLISH PRESS COMMENT

"Creation of New Dynastic Legitimacy," Says the Graphic.

LONDON, June 19.—Most of the morning newspapers and the weeklies which are issued to-day print editorials on President Roosevelt's triumph in securing the nomination of Secretary of War Taft for the presidency. The Daily Chronicle says:

"To save the life of his policy, he loses his life as President. It is an interesting phenomenon in the working of the American Constitution."

The Daily Graphic describes Mr. Taft as an "American Dauphin," adding "there is something Napoleonic about this creation of new dynastic legitimacy under the shadow of the Stars and Stripes."

All the newspapers pay tribute to Secretary Taft's great qualifications for the high office to which he has been nominated. The chief point of the Republican platform that is attracting attention here is the fiscal plank. The nation thinks it should lead to a reduction of the tariff in favor of free-trading Great Britain.

WELCOME NEWS IN PANAMA.

PANAMA, June 19.—The news of the nomination of Secretary of War Taft was welcomed by the people of Panama, who respect him highly. Senator Domingo De Obaldia, formerly Panamanian minister to the United States, and now a candidate for the presidential nomination in this republic, and a number of his friends to-day sent their congratulations to Secretary Taft.

BERLIN HEARS NEWS.

Announcement Too Late for Editorial Comment in Papers.

BERLIN, June 19.—The nomination of Secretary of War Taft for the presidency was published in brief form in the Berlin papers this morning. The news came too late, however, for editorial comment. Emperor William has been fully informed through the German embassy at Washington of Mr. Taft's personality and the likelihood of his nomination.

The news was commented on pleasantly in official quarters this morning. From the German point of view Secretary Taft is regarded as a suitable statesman to carry out the construction of the Panama Canal, the Philippine, naval, and Eastern trade, and the other foreign policies of the present administration.

Internal controversies are little known and get less attention in Germany.

Good, Says Morgan.

NEW YORK, June 19.—J. Pierpont Morgan, who arrived from Europe to-day expressed pleasure at the choice of Secretary of War Taft as the Republican nominee for the presidency. "It's good, good," Mr. Morgan said. He declined to talk further on politics or any other subject.

Bryan Analyzing It.

LINCOLN, NEB., June 19.—William J. Bryan to-day declined to discuss the work of the Republican convention. He read bulletins of to-day's events, telephoned to his library at Fairview, and entertained a number of callers during the morning. This afternoon he prepared an analysis of the result of the convention and the probable action of the meeting of the national committee.

Chamberlain's Majority.

SALEM, ORE., June 19.—Complete but unofficial primary returns on the nomination of a candidate for the United States Senate give H. M. Calk (Republican) 50,339 and George Chamberlain (Democrat) 52,421.

Two Prominent Figures

SENATORS LODGE AND CRANE.

Snapped on the sidewalk in front of the Annex.

Only All-Rail Line

TO

NORFOLK

IS VIA THE

Norfolk & Western Railway

2--Fast Vestibuled Trains--2 with

PULLMAN PARLOR CARS ATTACHED.

QUICKEST ROUTE.

2 HOURS AND 20 MINUTES.

The only line running solid trains between Richmond and Norfolk without change or transfers. Double daily service to the West North-west, South and Southwest. Pullman parlor, sleeping and dining cars.